

18. Briefly describe why you are applying or reapplying for licensure in North Carolina at this time.

19. Do you have a disability which may require some special accommodation in taking the examination(s)? Yes No
If yes, submit the following: (1) a letter describing the accommodations you are requesting; (2) documentation from a medical or mental health professional, who is qualified to administer tests for diagnosing and validating the identified disability, which confirms the disability and provides information that validates the accommodations you are requesting; and (3) if applicable, a letter from your graduate degree psychology program indicating the accommodations granted during graduate school. A request for special accommodations must be made at the time of application unless the disability develops after the time of application.

20. Health Services Provider (HSP) Certification: This certification is in addition to licensure and is mandatory for permanently licensed psychologists who render health services in North Carolina. You must apply for HSP unless you will not render health services in North Carolina.

Do you wish to apply for Health Services Provider Certification?

Yes. Complete the Application for Health Services Provider Psychologist (HSP-P) Based on Mobility Credential and remit the $50.00 HSP-P application fee.

No. I will not render health services in North Carolina.

21. Employee Misclassification Certification: I certify that I have read and understand the “public notice statement” maintained by the N.C. Psychology Board on its website. Further, I have I have not ever been investigated for employee misclassification. [YOU MUST CHECK A BOX]

I have reviewed a copy of the North Carolina Psychology Practice Act which stipulates the requirements for licensure and practice as a psychologist, including the requirement that, pursuant to G.S. § 90-270.15(a)(13), I must practice psychology within the boundaries of demonstrated competence or the limitations of education, training, or supervised experience. Further, I have reviewed the instructions describing the application process. I am of good moral character, the signature hereto is my own signature and each and every statement made in this application (including the several parts hereto attached and which form a part hereof) was made by me, and is in all respects true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

(Signature of Applicant)

The Board shall consider the following factors in reviewing an applicant's criminal background:

- 1) the level and seriousness of the crime.
- 2) The date of the crime.
- 3) the age of the person at the time of the crime.
- 4) The circumstances surrounding the commission of the crime, if known.
- 5) The nexus between the criminal conduct and the prospective duties of the applicant when licensed, registered or certified.
- 6) The prison, jail, probation, parole, rehabilitation, and employment records of the applicant since the date the crime was committed.
- 7) The completion of, or active participation in, rehabilitative drug or alcohol treatment.
- 8) A Certificate of Relief granted pursuant to G.S. 15A-173.2
- 9) The subsequent commission of a crime by the applicant.
- 10) Any affidavits or other written documents, including character references.

If your application is denied in whole or in part because of a criminal conviction, you may request a hearing before the Board under N.C. Gen. Stat §§ 150B-38 through 41.
